A butterfly garden will also be created to create greater awareness of the rich species diversity that exists in the island and of course to enhance the aesthetic element with olour and the timeless fascination that is the butterfly.